

CCHRC

COLD CLIMATE HOUSING
RESEARCH CENTER

Home Energy Rebate Program IMPACTS REPORT

ALASKA STATE INVESTMENT

$242.6 MILLION into the Home Energy Rebate Program has had the following effects:

STIMULATED

$142.2
MILLION

in private investments for home retrofits

The creation of an estimated

6,789
annual jobs

$912.5
MILLION

in Direct, Indirect, and Induced economic impacts

REDUCED

Total residential energy costs* by

$261
MILLION

Total residential energy use* by

115.4
MILLION gallons of oil (equivalent)

Alaska's greenhouse gas emissions* by

3.2
BILLION
lbs of CO₂

Average energy use of participating households by

* These reductions are cumulative estimates for the period of 2008 to 2018.

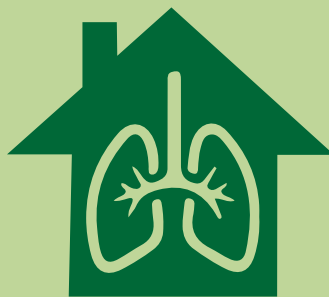

IMPROVED

Energy efficiency of 26,587

participating homes

Indoor air quality and comfort

leading to many reports of better health and quality of life

Average energy rating of participating homes from

2-Star +

4-Star